

Stepping into the Rainbow Power chakra dancing & journey drumming for women

A one-day workshop with

Christa Mackinnon & Teresa Konnaris

Saturday 24th October 2015, 10.30am - 5.30pm, Kamdaris House, Yelverton,
Devon

At this point in our collective journey into a new era, where the feminine is asked to take its rightful place within co-creation, women need to find ways to step into their power.

This workshop will help you to explore the vibrations and messages of the seven energy centres and energise and balance them.

We will work with chakra drum rhythms, chakra dance & chakra meditations, as well as with journeying and creative expression.

Come along! It will be a great and empowering day

About Christa Mackinnon and Teresa Konnaris

Christa is a psychologist, therapist, group facilitator, shamanic teacher and author of 'shamanism and spirituality in therapeutic practice'. She has worked with women and women's groups for over 25 years, both therapeutically as well as shamanically and runs drumming workshops. Her new book will be about the feminine.

Teresa is a teacher and facilitator of African drumming and chakra rhythm workshops. She is a person-centred-counsellor and transpersonal therapist, working with personal development and the inner journey with the masculine and feminine. Teresa is the author of the book "The Higher Relationship" and artist for "The Equation of Life" Insight Card Deck and Inner Artistry transformational art collections (symbolic images, expressions of insight and transformation).
